Attorneys at odds: 'Amperaya' is back

By Edmar C. Dada Jr.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW have been at odds for months over the custody of Baby A, the daughter of President Benigno Aquino III. The dispute is the latest in a series of legal battles between the Aquino family and the government. The Aquino family wants Baby A to be raised in the United States, while the government wants her to be raised in the Philippines.

Media watchdog monitoring poll coverage

By Neil Dela Cruz

MANILA, Philippines — The Media Watchdog Center (MWC) is monitoring the coverage of the 2007 national elections by the media. The watchdog group, which was created by the Philippine Commission on Elections (COMELEC), is concerned that the media is not providing a fair and balanced view of the candidates and the election process.

The MWC is a non-profit organization that was established in 2005. It is composed of media professionals and scholars who are dedicated to ensuring that the media plays a responsible role in the democratic process.

The watchdog group is currently monitoring the coverage of the 2007 national elections by the media. It is looking for any bias or unfair treatment of the candidates and the election process.

The MWC is also monitoring the coverage of the 2007 national elections by the media. It is looking for any bias or unfair treatment of the candidates and the election process.

Gov't targets 1.9% population growth rate by 2010, says Cabral

By Carl P. Suran

MANILA (AP) — The United Nations' 50th anniversary is a historic moment, especially for a country like the Philippines, which has been a member of the organization since its founding in 1945.

The United Nations Office of Population and Development (UNPD) is celebrating its 50th anniversary with a series of events, including a conference on population and development in Manila. The conference will focus on the challenges of population growth and development in the Asia-Pacific region.

Secretary of Health Nicanor Tiongson said that the Philippines is a country that has made significant progress in population and development. He said that the country has achieved a 50% increase in life expectancy and a 50% decrease in infant mortality rate.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q: I have a 1994 Ford Taurus with 100,000 miles. The car has been in the shop several times for engine problems. The engine is a 3.0 liter V6. The car has been in the shop for a long time and the engine is still not running right. The car is still under warranty. Can I get a new engine?

A: The answer to your question depends on the terms of the warranty. If the warranty covers the engine, then you should be able to get a new engine. However, if the warranty only covers the car's body and paint, then you may not be able to get a new engine. It is best to check the terms of the warranty with the dealer or the manufacturer.

Wizards post bizarre victory over Warriors

NEW YORK (AP) — The Washington Wizards' victory over the Golden State Warriors on Tuesday night was a bizarre and controversial one, as the Wizards won 101-98 after a 100-100 tie at the end of regulation.

The game was a defensive struggle, with both teams shooting poorly. The Wizards' victory was secured in the final minutes of the game, as the Warriors' defense broke down.

Atlas starts commercial nickel production, eyes more shipments

Second batch of exports to China ends trial phase

By Daniel L. Ryan
PHILADELPHIA — The first commercial shipment of nickel from the new Atlas Nickel Refinery in the state of New York, U.S., was made on Feb. 24, 2010, according to a statement from the company. The shipment was made to a customer in China, marking the end of the trial phase of the refinery's operations. The refinery, which is owned and operated by the Atlas Nickel Refining Co., is located in the town of Atlas, New York. The refinery has a capacity to produce up to 100,000 metric tons of nickel per year. The company is currently negotiating with other customers in China to increase its export volume. The refinery is expected to start full-scale commercial production in the third quarter of 2010.

PSALM sets out to correct past mistakes

With Transco now valued at about $3B, gov't agency sees no shortage of takers

By David I. Lee

PSALM, the federal government's largest energy company, is looking for a buyer for its 50% stake in Transco, a major natural gas pipeline operator. The agency is expected to announce the sale in the next few weeks. Transco, which has a market value of about $3 billion, is one of the most valuable energy companies in the U.S. The sale is part of a larger effort by PSALM to divest itself of its non-core assets and focus on its primary mission of managing the federal government's energy needs.

DOE eyes 'less stressful' contracts for Meralco

The Department of Energy (DOE) is looking for a way to reduce the financial stress on Meralco, a major power company in the Philippines. The DOE is considering a new set of contracts that would provide Meralco with more stable and predictable revenue. This move is part of a larger effort by the DOE to improve the financial health of the power sector and ensure a reliable supply of electricity for the country.

THE GRUMP
CHECK THE VIEW

A brooding, disconcerted Jim Carrey

By Dave Karger

Jim Carrey is back, and he's back with a vengeance. In "The Grump," Carrey plays a man who is so angry that he has become a grump. The movie is a comedy, but it's also a serious look at the human condition.

Carrey's performance is excellent. He brings a new level of depth to the character of the grump. The movie is a masterpiece of comedy and drama.
